

6516207520.txt

There should be no legal basis for anyone to propose legislation against satellite radio providing any service that public or commercial radio provides. I demand to see any legal authority for this type of action. I believe it would be unconstitutional to block receiving the news and weather on XM radio or any satellite service. If such legislation were enacted then satellite television would also have to be restricted in exactly the same manner.